Outstanding Success

INSIDE
Irrevocable Prophetic Decrees
Prophetic Declaration for Year 2015
Testimonies

"In everything he did he had great success, because the LORD was with him. When Saul saw how successful he was, he was afraid of him." (1 Sam. 18:14-15 (NIV))

Blockages should not deter you, neither should you be confused when persecuted nor be despondent when in trouble. You may still have a favorable outcome in spite of your challenges. Success when kept in track could be rewarding. When you are successful, people consider you fruitful and flourishing – so aim for it and don't settle for less. King David was a successful man in every area of life. As a shepherd, he was a great shepherd; as a king, his kingdom was established despite oppositions and wars. He considered success as "behaving yourself wisely in all your ways". Kindly compare these verses of the scriptures:

"And David behaved wisely in all his ways, and the LORD was with him. Therefore, when Saul saw that he behaved very wisely, he was afraid of him." (1 Sam. 18:14-15 (KJV))

"In everything he did he had great success, because the LORD was with him. When Saul saw how successful he was, he was afraid of him." (1 Sam. 18:14-15 (NIV))

So, I also see success as "wisdom to behave and conduct myself right at all times". I celebrate with joy, every individual I meet; the reason is because your being alive and surviving the unknown world of the womb and trials of birth, is a huge success. However, as we grow, many people derail from the path of success and life becomes hard and difficult. I watch with sadness people abandoning their natural gifting and striving for the unreachable. "If a son asks for bread from any father among you, will he give him a stone? Or if he asks for a fish, will he give him a serpent instead of a fish? Or if he asks for an egg, will he offer him a scorpion? If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him!" (Lk. 11:11-13).

In this passage, our Lord Jesus expresses the Father's love to His son. The Father provides for his son even when he doesn't have, he desires to do so. Jesus pointed out specific provisions – bread, fish and egg – if well prepared will be naturally nutritious. However, he contrasted each of this: bread contrasted with stone; fish with serpent; and egg with scorpion. Receiving stone as blessing or serpent for favor or scorpion for a reward, show the misery of life and it's an evil case. Stones are hard, no matter how long we cook them, and they are not edible. This speaks of replacement of blessing with hardship and suffering. Whereas, bread can satisfy your hunger, making you gain calories for strength. Jesus after fasting for forty days and nights became hungry and was tempted by the devil. His first temptation was to turn stone to bread (Matt. 4:3). The devil presented a hard situation before him, but Jesus refused it.

Fish in replacement of serpent is when pleasure turns to pain; serpent is a symbol of deception. We are commanded to tread upon it (Lk. 10:19). Success becomes unattainable when what we are commanded to tread upon becomes what we depend on to satisfy our needs. Replacing scorpion with egg is when feeding becomes scourging. Serpent and scorpion sting and could be deadly when not treated. I ask you, when seeking success, do you get bread, fish and egg? Or stone, serpent and scorpion? One who gets stone, serpent and scorpion finds it hard to succeed and may go through the cycle of oppression, affliction and sorrow. But the one who gets bread, fish and egg, see success as satisfying and fulfilling.

TREASURE IN MY SACKS

"But he said, "Peace be with you, do not be afraid. Your God and the God of your father has given you treasure in your sacks; I had your money." Then he brought Simeon out to them." (Gen. 43:23). This was the declaration of one of Joseph's stewards to the children of Jacob, after they had visited Egypt during the drought. In their first visit to Egypt, Joseph – the great leader of Egypt next to Pharaoh had commanded to "restore every man's money into his sack" (Gen. 42:25). This instruction was carried out without the knowledge of the children of Jacob. So they departed from Egypt unknown to them that their money had been restored. On their journey back home one of them opened his sack. "But as one of them opened his sack to give his donkey feed at the encampment, he saw his money; and there it was, in the mouth of his sack" (Gen. 42:27). They were all amazed perhaps terrified to see the money in the sack. So they continued their journey until they got home and narrated their experiences to Jacob their father. As they emptied the sacks, they all discovered that individual money was restored. "Then it happened as they emptied their sacks, that surprisingly each man's bundle of money was in his sack; and when they and their father saw the bundles of money, they were afraid" (Gen. 42:35).

I consider this in light of every mankind carrying a treasure – things valuable to our destiny. As we engage in the journey of life carrying valuable possessions that the Almighty God has put in us, many people never live to discover it until the end of their journey, when "they empty their sacks", then they discover what they had in their possession to profit them in life, but never used. Only one of Jacob's sons discovered his own treasure. While others celebrated with him and perhaps discussed about it for the rest of their journey. I have learnt so many principles of success in life, and one of those is that, the successful people we celebrate may not necessarily be the best in their fields. Why do I say so? Many of us are like Jacob's sons who saw success in others but failed to see greater success in themselves. Those, whom we all talk about and try to be like, may not be better than us. All we need to do is to look inwardly on God's gifting for our lives and apply them.

Even when they all discovered that their money was restored, they had no claim to it because they thought it was an error. They kept it until they returned to Egypt the second time. "Take double money in your hand, and take back in your hand the money that was returned in the mouth of your sacks; perhaps it was an oversight" (Gen. 43:12). In returning to Egypt, they played honesty in humbly returning the money (Gen. 43:19-22). Then the steward made them understand the mysteries of what they have been carrying, "treasure in your sacks". The steward put it in their sacks by command and so he attributed it to; "your God and the God of your father" (v. 23). In most cases it takes somebody to identify our gifting and points out the best in us. Even then, we often disregard it, expecting something beyond reach. Jacob's children called it "money" but the steward called it "treasure"; something more than money – precious and valuable. Even so are you; possessing precious and valuable gifts of life.

May I ask, if you have uncover the treasure in you? It may be deep down in you suppressed by the sorrow of the past and the shame of your youth. It is a difficult position to be, going through life as orphans yet we have an Eternal Father. It is worse, when in trouble and despised without hope, yet the Comforter lives in us. Worst still, when the angels are at our service, but we ignore them. I have been privileged to meet people of all works of life at different stages of their earthly journey – children, toddlers, teenagers and adults. I watch carefully how people struggle to no avail and how they engage in unending battles with failure – uncertain about a better tomorrow. May we reconnect back to our

"As we engage in the journey of life carrying valuable possessions that the Almighty God has put in us, many people never live to discover it until the end of their journey, when "they empty their sacks", then they discover what they had in their possession to profit them in life, but never used."

TESTIMONIES - PRAISE REPORT

"And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony," (Rev. 12:11).

CANCER CURED:

I was diagnosed with cancer which was life threatening. Everybody around me lost hope, even my physicians gave me very little hope; especially seeing the type of cancer that I had and the organs affected. To the glory of God, I am cancer free today. Praise God!

B. S. – Scarborough, Ontario

BRAIN SURGERY SURVIVAL:

For the past years, I have been getting headaches, dizziness and imbalances. After a series of medical tests, I was diagnosed with blood clot and bleeding in the brain – it was pronounced very critical. Immediate surgery was conducted and to the glory of God, recovery was very fast, and I was discharged three days after the surgery without complications; all my senses and body organs are in very good condition. Praise God!

J. A. – Toronto, Ontario

PRAYER LINE DELIVERANCE:

I thank God for the Above All Christian Gathering Friday Prayer Line. I have been a regular participant for the past few years. I connected on one Friday night from the hospital where my mother was undergoing treatments. Then the Word of Knowledge came forth from the Pastor about a caller from the hospital visiting a patient. I was amazed and thankful to God for remembering me and my mother. The Pastor prayed and almost immediately things started getting better. My mother was discharged from the hospital two days after. She has since been doing very well. Thanks be to God on High!

J. B. – Toronto, Ontario

SIX JOB OFFERS:

After my graduation from the University, I was unable to practice my career; I couldn't just get a good job. I settled for a survival job and this lasted over a year. I attended Above All Christian Gathering Deliverance Crusade in Springfield, Illinois. To the glory of God, between January and June, I had a good job offer each month. I had changed jobs six times in six months. It got better on every offer. What a mighty God I serve!

T. O. – Illinois, USA

FAMILY SALVATION:

I am thankful to God for my family. I love my children very dearly. I was sad when they turned their back against God and lost interest in anything about God. I fasted, prayed and trusted God to touch their hearts. Today, I am grateful to God that the miracle of salvation has taken place, praise the Lord. My children are joyfully serving the Lord. I can truly say that my joy is full.

M. I. – Mississauga, Ontario

MY CHILDREN RESCUED FROM DANGER:

Raising up my children as always has been with great difficulty. I struggle with an unending strife with my children especially when they dropped out of school, influenced by negative attitudes and worked out of home. My world fell apart and I counted it all lost until I was invited to a monthly "Prayer Cry for Your Children" service organized by Above All Christian Gathering. I loved the program, as I see parents travelling in prayers for their children and grandchildren. Within few months of attending the program, my children returned home, one after the other, back to school and ready to serve God and fulfil destiny. Thanks be to God.

D. L. – Brampton, Ontario

MARRIAGE RECONCILIATION:

I married a man I loved so very much and I believed he loved me too. We started very well for a few years until a radical turning around when my husband picked on every little thing I and the children do. Disagreements and strife became the order of the day until he moved out of the house and cut off all contacts with us. We couldn't reach him and he never checked on us. This continued for over a year. I attended counselling sessions and prayers with the Pastor. He encouraged me and assured me that the marriage will be put together again. To the glory of God, he has returned home and loves me and children more than before. More importantly, his love for God is deeper. Halleluyah!

PROPHETIC WORDS FOR YEAR 2015

"MY YEAR OF OUTSTANDING SUCCESS"

"Now will I rise, saith the Lord; now will I be exalted; now will I lift up myself." (Isa. 33:10)

- This is the Year that the Holy Spirit will expose the strangers in the midst that constituted mixed multitude.
- Year 2015 is the Year of multiple open windows. Windows will be opened in the wall and roof, hence light will shine more and the wind of refreshing will blow upon us.
- It is a Sabbath year – the Year of the LORD's release.
- This is the Year to keep away from compromise, because it will make you lose your originality.
- In Year 2015, there shall be major shifts in the world's economy, but those who put their trust in the LORD God of Harvest shall rejoice.
- Those who harden their hearts against God shall not have it easy.
- "My people", says the LORD, "shall have referential testimonies over harden problems".
- It is the Year of "outstanding success". Wisdom to behave and conduct oneself right at all times would be needed.
- My people – Israel, is still dear to my heart, "I have not forgotten them", says the LORD. This Year 2015 is the year of the LORD for Israel wherein God's eternal covenant shall come alive.
- In Year 2015, the obedient children shall have one portion above others.
- This is the Year that strategic decrees of God's people shall bring major shift unto the next level of glory.
- The foundation of family life is greatly shaken, let the elect make unfailing supplication for help from on High; and "I, the LORD will rescue".

PROPHETIC WORD ON THE WORLD SCENE

- Syria is a boiling pot ready to explode. It shall surely explode and affect the least expected places.
- The Middle East crisis shall rise up again. This shall open doors for the gospel of peace and lightens their darkness.
- "China, Japan and North Korea have reached the height of idolatry. I, the Mighty One, shall shake their foundations".
- The Great and Mighty Creator shall stir up strange things in many nations until the pride and rebellion of mankind are brought down.
- "My People, my chosen – Israel, shall not be forgotten. The gathering and raging of nations against Israel shall be frustrated", says the Great Shepherd of Israel.
- The media and the entertainment world have enslaved mankind. "O that the Great Deliverer will arise from Zion to save this sinking generation. The fire of my love will raise up apostles and prophets among them".

Maker and trust Him for grace, even as we are determined to please Him always."

WHO KEEPS YOUR BAG?

I enjoy travelling and have toured some historical places of the world. I remember in some of the places I visited, the tour guide will announce, "please keep your bags". I have seen some people loosing their bags to thieves. I have seen them crying and in rage, perhaps not because of the bag, which may be replaceable, but could be because of the items in the bag. Bags are for holding, storing or carrying something. We pack our bags based on the appointment or occasion – items in the bags are ready for use for our comfort. A soldier set for battle packs his bags to suit his needs, while a student set for classroom focuses on the essentials. Bags help us to carry with ease several items without falling apart. So also in life, every individual is equipped with gifts and values to help our life's journey.

"Valuable items slip through the hole in the bag. The sad thing about it, is that we may not notice them when they fall out. It could be when needed that we become aware of the lost. When and where, we may not know."

I ask you what do you carry in your bag of destiny? David the shepherd boy, confronted Goliath – the giant, by picking five smooth stones from the brook and putting them in his bag (1 Sam. 17:40). He then brought out the stone from the bag when needed. I ask you, "What do you carry in your bag? Perhaps, who is keeping your bag? I watched a couple shopping in a store with their son. They picked up the items needed and was ready to pay, but could not. Why? Their son carrying the bag left the store, running around the mall. No bag, no transaction, because the bag contains the money and the credit cards. They waited until the boy returned. Judas was to betray our Lord Jesus. The easy way to fulfil his assignment was to target the bag. "This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and had the bag, and bare what was put therein. For some of them thought, because Judas had the bag, that Jesus had said unto him, Buy those things that we have need of against the feast; or, that he should give something to the poor." (Jn. 12:6; Jn. 13:29). He was the keeper of the bag, yet a thief.

The lack of success of many people could be a direct attack on their bags. I mean the bag of your destiny – where your treasures are kept. Hear the sayings of Jesus – "Sell what you have and give alms; provide yourselves money bags which do not grow old, a treasure in the heavens that does not fail, where no thief approaches nor moth destroys" (Lk. 12:33). From this verse of the scripture, attacks on the bag of your destiny can be: "waxing old", "thief", "eaten by moths".

- Waxing old – Always keep it in good shape to prevent damage.
- Thief – "The thief does not come except to steal, and to kill, and to destroy. I have come that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly" (Jn. 10:10).
- Moth – One of the characteristics of moths is that they live in darkness, but are attracted by light. Therefore, if you are of the light, even as Jesus is of the light, as the carrier of God's glory, watch out for attacks of moths.

Another attack on the bag of our destiny preventing wealth is, "You have sown much, and bring in little; You eat, but do not have enough; You drink, but you are not filled with drink; You clothe yourselves, but no one is warm; And he who earns wages, Earns wages to put into a bag with holes" (Haggai 1:6). Valuable items slip through the hole in the bag. The sad thing about it, is that we may not notice them when they fall out. It could be when needed that we become aware of the lost. When and where, we may not know. The troubles of life punch holes on us which permit several losses when not well guarded. Your success can be outstanding when you prevent holes in your life; guard against thieves and watch what you attract. When treasures are well kept and preserved, outstanding success is inevitable.

JESUS CHRIST IS ABOVE ALL

IRREVOCABLE PROPHETIC DECREES!

ADVANCEMENT OF DESTINY

"Our soul has escaped as a bird from the snare of the fowlers; The snare is broken, and we have escaped." (Psalm 124:7).

DISPLAY OF KINGDOM STRENGTH

"That in the third year of his reign he made a feast for all his officials and servants—the powers of Persia and Media, the nobles, and the princes of the provinces being before him." (Esther 1:3)

- 1) Thus says the Lord to all my adversaries, "But now your kingdom shall not continue ..." (1 Samuel 13:14), in Jesus' name.
- 2) Hear O ye principalities against my life, "the LORD has torn "your kingdom" apart (1 Samuel 15:28). Therefore, let go of me and become desolate, in Jesus' name.
- 3) Thus says the Lord of Hosts, for as long as [mention your name] lives on earth, the haters of my soul "shall not be established, nor their kingdom" (1 Samuel 20:31), in Jesus' name.
- 4) I know of a surety that I shall surely rule over all my adversaries and the Kingdom of God shall be established in my hands, in Jesus' name.
- 5) It is written: "So David knew that the LORD had established him as king over Israel, and that He had exalted His kingdom for the sake of His people Israel. (2 Samuel 5:12). Therefore, I celebrate Jesus because He has established me in victory and His Kingdom is exalted in my life, in Jesus' name.
- 6) Your Kingdom, O LORD God of Israel, is exalted forever in my life. Therefore, I command every other kingdom be subdued and desolate, in Jesus' name.
- 7) O LORD God of Israel, let the strength of Your Kingdom establish me in righteousness and holiness, in Jesus' name.

THE RICHES OF HIS KINGDOM

"When he showed the riches of his glorious kingdom and the splendor of his excellent majesty for many days, one hundred and eighty days in all." (Esther 1:4)

- 1) The Holy One of Israel, who is seated on the throne of His Kingdom has filled me with the riches of His glory, in Jesus' name.
- 2) It is written: "So Solomon reigned over all kingdoms from the River to the land of the Philistines, as far as the border of Egypt. They brought tribute and served Solomon all the days of his life" (1 Kings 4:21). Even so, the Most High God has made me to reign over His heritage, in Jesus' name.
- 3) The throne of Your Kingdom, O God, is established in my life,. Therefore, I shall forever enjoy the riches of Your Kingdom, in Jesus' name.
- 4) I join David the King of Israel to proclaim: "Yours, O LORD, is the greatness, The power and the glory, The victory and the majesty; For all that is in heaven and in earth is Yours; Yours is the kingdom, O LORD, And You are exalted as head over all. Both riches and honor come from You, And You reign over all. In Your hand is power and might; In Your hand it is to make great And to give strength to all. "Now therefore, our God, We thank You And praise Your glorious name" (1 Chronicles 29:11-13), in Jesus' name.
- 5) O LORD God of Israel, my Eternal Father, thank You because the riches of Your glorious Kingdom and the honour of Your excellent majesty are fulfilled in my life, in Jesus' name.
- 6) It is written: "They shall speak of the glory of Your kingdom, And talk of Your power" (Psalm 145:11). Therefore, I speak of the glory of Your Kingdom and proclaim the greatness of Your power, O Most High God, in Jesus' name.
- 7) Thank You, Jehovah Yahweh, because You have established me in miracles that all the Kingdoms of the earth would know that You are my Eternal Father and my Lord, in Jesus' name.

KINGDOM FEAST

"And when these days were completed, the king made a feast lasting seven days for all the people who were present in Shushan the citadel, from great to small, in the court of the garden of the king's palace." (Esther 1:5)

- 1) It is written: "The LORD has established His throne in heaven, And His kingdom rules over all" (Psalm 103:19). Therefore, let the Eternal throne of the Holy One of Israel establish His rule over my life, in Jesus' name.
- 2) It is written: "To make known to the sons of men His mighty acts, And the glorious majesty of His kingdom" (Psalm 145:12). Even so, shall I manifest the glorious majesty of the Lord Most High, in Jesus' name.
- 3) O LORD God of Israel, I boldly proclaim that "Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, And Your dominion endures throughout all generations" (Psalm 145:13), in Jesus' name.
- 4) It is written: "For he comes out of prison to be king, Although he was born poor in his kingdom" (Ecclesiastes 4:14). Even so, I glorify God who has brought me out of the prison to reign with Him in power and glory, in Jesus' name.
- 5) It is written: "Of the increase of His government and peace There will be no end, Upon the throne of David and over His kingdom, To order it and establish it with judgment and justice From that time forward, even forever. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will perform this" (Isaiah 9:7). Therefore, I celebrate Jesus for the increase of His Kingdom perfected in my life, in Jesus' name.

- 6) It is written: "But the saints of the Most High shall receive the kingdom, and possess the kingdom forever, even forever and ever" (Daniel 7:18). Even so, I take and possess the riches of God's Kingdom, in Jesus', name.
- 7) It is written: "Your kingdom come. Your will be done On earth as it is in heaven" (Matthew 6:10). Even so, let Your Kingdom come into my life, dear Lord Jesus, in Jesus' name.

THE GLORY OF HIS PRESENCE

"If it pleases the king, let a royal decree go out from him, and let it be recorded in the laws of the Persians and the Medes, so that it will not be altered, that Vashti shall come no more before King Ahasuerus; and let the king give her royal position to another who is better than she." (Esther 1:19)

- 1) O LORD God of Israel, my Eternal Father let the glory of Your presence overwhelm me, in Jesus' name.
- 2) It is written: "Honor and majesty are before Him; Strength and gladness are in His place" (1 Chronicles 16:27). Therefore, I manifest the glory and honor in the presence of Almighty Yahweh with gladness, in Jesus' name.
- 3) It is written: "Where can I go from Your Spirit? Or where can I flee from Your presence? If I ascend into heaven, You are there; If I make my bed in hell, behold, You are there" (Psalm 139:7-8). Therefore, my Eternal Father, the Holy One of Israel, restore the joy of Your presence to me, in Jesus' name.
- 4) It is written: "You will show me the path of life; In Your presence is fullness of joy; At Your right hand are pleasures forevermore" (Psalm 16:11). In Your mercies, O LORD Most High, I manifest the joy and the pleasures of Your presence, in Jesus' name.
- 5) It is written: "Oh, that You would rend the heavens! That You would come down! That the mountains might shake at Your presence" (Isaiah 64:1). Thanks be to God on High, for granting me an open heaven and the outpouring of His presence into my life, in Jesus' name.
- 6) It is written: "Then Cain went out from the presence of the LORD and dwelt in the land of Nod on the east of Eden" (Genesis 4:16). I vow not to walk away from God's presence, neither would I be diverted from His presence, in Jesus' name.
- 7) It is written: "Now thanks be to God who always leads us in triumph in Christ, and through us diffuses the fragrance of His knowledge in every place" (2 Corinthians 2:14). Therefore, let the aroma of divine presence overwhelm me in every place, in Jesus' name.

CORONATION FEAST

"Then the king made a great feast, the Feast of Esther, for all his officials and servants; and he proclaimed a holiday in the provinces and gave gifts according to the generosity of a king." (Esther 2:18)

- 1) It is written: "For the kingdom is the LORD's And He rules over the nations" (Psalm 22:28). Even so, I enthrone the Lordship of my Resurrected Jesus over my life, in Jesus' name.
- 2) It is written: "And raised us up together, and made us sit together in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus" (Ephesians 2:6). Praise be to God Almighty, who has made me to seat upon the throne of glory together with my Resurrected Jesus, in Jesus' name.
- 3) With my divine sceptre, I subdue and break in pieces all opposing forces to my greatness, in Jesus' name.
- 4) It is written: "For You have made him a little lower than the angels, And You have crowned him with glory and honor" (Psalm 8:5). Therefore, I give praise and thanks to the LORD Most High, who has crowned me with his glory and beauty, in Jesus' name.
- 5) My glorious celebration has begun, so let everything that God has created celebrate me henceforth, in Jesus' name.
- 6) Praise be to God who has made me a partaker of His glorious inheritance, in Jesus' name.
- 7) I lift up my eyes unto the God of heaven and earth to praise and honor Him that lives forever, whose dominion is an everlasting dominion and His Kingdom is from generation to generation, in Jesus' name.
